HEALEY HEARSAY

Official Publication of the Club of San Diego

From The Editor:

"Was your car parked here?" asked my friend pointing at a spot on the church parking lot. "Yep, I said, why?"

"There is a puddle of oil there." "I know," I said, "it's a British car." We laughed. That seems to be the standard for all British cars. I really don't feel so bad after I visited Allen Taylor's restoration shop and, looking at a multi million dollar Bugatti, I spotted a puddle of oil in the pristine engine bay. Taylor said that was how they knew there was oil in the car.

None-the-less, the piles of oily cat litter in my garage is testimony that there are more oil leaks than are warranted by a 55 year old british chariot. Looking underneath I know the rear oil seal on the crank is leaking and Moss has an up graded one that will stop all that. I could change that but it would entail pulling the engine and transmission just to get to the offending part. I'll wait until there is some other reason to take the engine apart then I'll fix the oil leak. So, I need another bag of kitty litter.

President's Message:

Hey there Healey Peeps

Well here we are again, Summer is slipping away and the Holiday season is quickly approaching!!

Coronado Speedfest was a mixed bag this year. I was listed in Group 5 in the program but raced in Group 1 PMO ran well First in class and 9th overall. Dewey also raced in Group 1 and Pete Smith's car was supposed to also until the timing chain stretched and decided not to run on the way back from the Downtown Coronado Parade & Show. Thinking it had just ran out of gas (that's what Pete thought had happened) we went about trying to fix that issue Friday & most of Saturday with Lots & Lots of other opinion's and arms and legs, first it was no gas, then it was too much gas, bad plugs, wrong plugs, no spark, bad coil, bad points, broken/bad wiring. With every change it would tease us by starting just for a moment and then lap back into popping back out the carb, indicating again my original feeling that the timing chain had stretched and the intake valves were still open when the ignition was trying to fire. So, that's racing sometimes, so new adjustable duplex timing chain & gears to the rescue. Thank God Pete had his Formula Ford there to drive as well!!

carb, indicating again my original feeling that the timing chain had stretched and the intake valves were still open when the ignition was trying to fire. So, that's racing sometimes, so new adjustable duplex timing chain & gears to the rescue. Thank God Pete had his Formula Ford there to drive as well!!

Welcome to our newest paddock friends Joe Biglione GP-1 Karmann Ghia, Bart Smith Mini Cooper and their Families & Friends. Also joining us are Lon Walters, with his Elva & Alan & Joanne Berry with a Volvo in Group 5, so it was great fun and great racing!!

I also took a moment and went up to English Motors @ Fairbrook. It was a great drive, nice Healey weather, and still a great setting. I met up with a few of the Association folks, chatted about the upcoming New Zealand trip and saw some nice Healeys!!

Chic & Donna were there, Lou & Debbie in his Jag, Howard Macken's Nasty Boy 100, and a Nasty Boy Bugeye. I didn't get all the names but it was a nice turn out Healey wise.

Next up British Car Day. We must have at least 4 cars per category Pre Registered on Oct. 1 or there will be no place awards. You must be there AND PARKED by 9AM or no get to show.

September Healey Meeting Minutes

The September 10th meeting was held at the Mainstream Bar & Grill at 13385 Poway Rd Poway Ca. 25 Members and guests were in attendance: Drove Healeys*, other British~.

John Banales, Terry Cowan*, Mike Dolphin Sr. Debbie Durham, Lou Gallper~, Bob & Barbara Humphreys*, Lisa Mandell, Ed Matheus*, Udo & Gisela Putzke, John & Mary Schermerhorn, Mary Jane Schmidt*, Rick & Allie Snover~, Gary Stalker*, Howard & Lynne Stark, Sam Talbert, Craig & Sue Turner, Sandy Watt, Lee & Julie White*, Meeting was called to order by president Terry Cowan.

General Discussions:

Largely about the Christmas party. Terry has secured the Auto Museum for December Sat. the 13th. A tally of last years event showed a net cost of $173.95 to the club. Lynne will contact the caterer we used and get a quote for what this years cost might look like. We have traditionally held a "steal it x times gift exchange" and the idea of doing a silent auction instead was apparently floated.. This would need a decent list of items to make this sucessful so send a list of donations to Lou to get an idea of where things stand. Drinks (club to sell ?) suggested were Sierra Mist and Coke Zero with Lisa indicating she will bring Perrier.

A clearificarion of the meeting entrée winner rules. Food only, maximum of $15.00. 1 person. The meeting has been changed to the 3rd Wednesday in October to possibly make it easier for Dick and Jan to attend.

Vice President/ Membership: Think I understand Lynne to be putting out an updated roster..

Secretary: My thanks again to clubmembers for taking down meeting notes so I can turn them into the newsletter "minutes" format. The Wednesday hospitality of Moors Cancer Center is not permanent but I will be there for a bit longer.. Jan and my problem is not the "day" of the meeting, but where or what time it is. Her night vision has become problematic so getting us home comfortably in winter darkness is the challenge.

Treasurer: Mike Dolphin reported that the bank balance is still hanging around in decent shape.

Newsletter: Sam indicated he will be doing an article on Sue. He would like pictures, anecdotes, input of articles from any source...

Activities:

The Octoberfest will be Saturday the 18th.

September 20 and 21 is Coronado Speedfest.

The Fairbrook Farms will be a two day event Sept 27 and 28., The LA Association will be there on the 28th. October 12 is British Car Day and cars there for showing need to be parked by 9.00 a.m.

See the dedicated activities page for complete coverage of whats coming.

Museum/Greater SD Car Club Council: Position vacant

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted

There is also another pile of litter under the differential, and cute stripes on my rear wheels. Something else is leaking. An inspection revealed perished rear wheel seals and gaskets on both sides and a leaking pinion seal.

The next step is to replace all the seals and gaskets and redo the rear brakes because the dead seals allowed differential oil to coat the brakes and make the drums useless to stop the car.

Hopefully it'll all get done before British Car Day.

Sue Farnsworth

It was a happy day in the Gower household. Santa came three days early and delivered a beautiful baby girl on the 22nd of December 1937. Susan Gower grew into a tall, sassy, blond, blue eyed beauty in her home town of La Mesa. She attended Grossmont High School until Helix High opened in her sophomore year. She entered the running for Cinderella Princess in El Cajon's Mother Goose Parade and became first runner up.

Susan was invited by some of her friends to come along on a blind date. There to pick her up was a Tony Curtis look alike named Bob Farnsworth. He took one look and never wanted that date to end. As soon as Sue finished high school, on May 7, 1955 they got married.

Typical of most young couples they had to live on a budget and Bob traded his less than reliable 1952 Kaiser for a 1951

MGTD. After all there were only two of them and the TD cost much less to run, with both of them working they had to ferry each other back and forth to work. It wasn't too satisfactory though. MG's are not noted for their power, and one day as Sue was being overtaken by a bread truck, she said, "We need a Healey!"

That led to the purchase of the first Farnsworth BN1 (Bob ultimately had three that were lost in the Cedar fire). As time went on the family grew with the entrance of Laurie and Rick. Bob's work as an engineer has taken him to some interesting places to work on some exotic projects. One particular project took the family to Wyoming and they loaded everyone into the BN1 and headed out for Cheyenne, Wyoming in FEBRUARY! That takes real faith! (Ask Bob about that trip.)

In conversation with daughter Laurie and daughter-in-law Donna, one of the things they told me was, she loved to cook.

She even conducted cooking classes for the local 4H club. She was involved in PTA and volunteered in many ways in the community. She was awarded 'Volunteer of the Month' by the San Diego Volunteer Bureau for her work with mentally ill patients in Spring Valley.

Sue was a consistent participant in the activities of the Club. Bob

and Sue were at every event of the club.
It was

Bob and

Sue aren't here then it's not a real event. She slipped away from us last month. She will be missed.

Wounded Warrior Car Show

Bob & Barb Humphreys

The 2nd Annual show was held at the Hawthorne Equipment shop near Rancho Bernardo. The show benefited the San Diego Wounded Warrior Project. There were over 300 cars of all types present and most were in very good condition.

The show had a wide variety of drawing prizes, a live auction and a raffle. This was the most items that I have seen at any show. There were numerous vendors and food trucks to choose from.

This show provided much support to the many wounded veterans in San Diego and is well worth attending. We are planning on being there next year.

There were loud demos by several dragsters. A drone was seen filming the show.

The weather was VERY HOT. We were lucky to find a shaded area that was reasonably comfortable. In addition to the trophies, some cars

A Day at the Coronado Speed Fest

by Warren Voth

The 2014 Coronado Speed Festival, like racing and life, is an event always in transition. Still the largest racing event of its type on the West Coast, the excitement was still there but seemed to call to the next generation. The race cars of the 30's to the 60's were in short supply. The Testa Rosa Ferrari's, Bird Cage Maserati's, D-Type Jags, Aston Martins, Pre War Alfa's, MG's and HRG's, etc. were absent. There was a nice Lister Corvette and a Lotus or two though.

Time marches on to Thunder Birds, monster trucks and big block 70's and 80's cars, and new gear heads with different likes. Taste and times are changing.

The Austin Healey Club of San Diego is no longer peopled with as many of the spring chickens we knew and were. And more Club members have other interests and priorities. I saw a few members. Terry Cowan and Dewey de Butts were racing their Sprinzel Sebring and Bug Eye Sprites. And Gary Black, (from out of town), and his very nice Denis Welch powered BRG Healey 3000. Gary and I had a nice chat, He wondered if the interest in British cars, like the Healey's, were waning. I said I hoped not. Big Healey's anyway, were never a large production item and many of them have returned to Mother Earth. The fact that they were limited (and Barbie's favorite) helps their cult following.

The car corral was packed with before mentioned 50th Anniversary Thunder Birds, muscle cars, and the larger more active clubs. I saw very few British sports cars from the 40's and 50's that started the American sports car movement we knew and grew up with. My Healey, no longer in the prime corral spot behind the first bleachers, was relegated to the far end of the car corral next to the RV's and trailers. That's life.

I arrived about 8:15 and walked around until about noon. The exhibits were great as always and the food was artery clogging. I grabbed a lean grilled chicken sandwich that was surprisingly good, or I was unsurprisingly hungry. While having lunch, a fellow enthusiast with a Monterey shirt asked to sit down at my otherwise vacant table. I commented on what I felt was the lack of vintage cars at the festival. He said he had attended the Monterey races and felt many were missing there too. His take is they are being bought as investments, hidden away in a low profit market, to be sold in better days..

I picked up a program, from the next table, that the purchasers glanced at and left. I checked out the pits and exhibits I missed earlier and left before the mass exodus, which I happily missed. I did see Lou Galper and Deborah Durham on the way out.

The day was too nostalgic for this gear head filled with remembrances of earlier Speed Fests passed.
